

January 2016 Historian Report for February 2016 Board Meetings
Marybelle Beigh, Westfield Town Historian & Westfield Village Historian

Historian Activities During January 2016:

- Attended Town Board meeting January 14, 2016
 - Completed research for client regarding the origin of the bark wall coverings of the Bark Grill. Received a thank-you book about Bark Houses from client. Using research for BeeLines articles. Included a phone interview with Philomina DiPasquale Miller (82) regarding her memories of watching the bark applied to the walls, when she was about age 5
 - Completed and sent 2015 Annual Historian Report to State Historian, County Historian, Westfield Town Supervisor, and Westfield Village Mayor.
 - BeeLines articles and photos are posted regularly to Westfield Historian Facebook website
 - BeeLines articles researched, written, and published with related photos in Westfield Republican in January
1. Fourth "Peacock Home" at 32 McClurg - Part 5a of Peacock Homes in Westfield series
 2. Peacock Home-32 McClurg - Part 5b, plus Buzzings re Blast that severely damaged home - current photo of 32 McClurg by Marybelle Beigh
 3. The Bark that Named "The Bark Grill" - Part 1 - photo of Tony "Bark" & Carrie DiPasquale showing bark on walls, circa 1950. (Part 2 to run in February)